

Best San Diego Dishes for National Fish Week

We are halfway through National Fishing Week (June 2 – 10), which is a time to highlight the importance of recreational fishing and boating throughout the U.S. Celebrate by taking advantage of free fishing days – which vary by state – or by indulging in delicious fish dishes at nearby hot spots. San Diego has an abundance of great places to enjoy a fresh, tasty catch, so we've rounded up the best of the best in the city.

Pacific Beach Fish Shop, which opened in 2010, now has multiple locations in Encinitas, Hermosa Beach and Point Loma, where locals and visitors can dive into a long list of fresh catch! Fish Shop favorites include Fish Tacos, Coconut Shrimp, Poke Bowls and Fish Shop Shrimp. Hook your favorite catch like Albacore, Mahi Mahi or Ahi and order them tucked in tacos, grilled on a salad or create a combo plate. With so many different options creating over 2,000 combinations, there's a sea of possibilities for delicious meals at Fish Shop.

Little Italy is a great neighborhood to find some of San Diego's best restaurants, including the Japanese inspired Cloak & Petal, located on India Street. At Cloak & Petal, diners can sit beneath a cherry blossom tree while feasting on authentic Japanese sushi, appetizers, small plates and creative craft cocktails. A must-try dish is the Salmon Tostada, made with caramel onions, truffle soy reduction, lemon, cilantro and pickled chile. This ultra-hip offers the crowd-pleasing Rainbow Roll; which is a California roll topped with tuna, yellowtail, salmon, halibut and avocado. Cloak & Petal has a ton of fresh fish plates, any of which would be perfect for celebrating National Fishing Week!

Miss B's Coconut Club is an island-inspired bar located just steps from the ocean in Mission Beach. At this fun and festive spot, sip on cocktails and enjoy flavorful, Caribbean-inspired plates. The Seafood Ceviche, consisting of shrimp, white fish, fresh citrus juices, red onion, serrano peppers, cilantro, mango and coconut milk, is a perfect shareable appetizer for groups of friends or families to enjoy. Spice things up by opting for Miss B's Jumbo Jerk Shrimp with mango chutney. Jerk seasoned jumbo shrimp will take your palate on a tropical getaway.

If perusing the coastal streets of Pacific Beach, dive into any of the culinary options at Waterbar. The Baked Atlantic Salmon is a must-try! Smothered in mustard glaze, ginger, leeks, roasted root vegetable and mustard seed, the flavors swim together and create one delicious masterpiece. Oysters, Fish and Chips or the famous Charred Octopus are a few other options for fish-loving foodies to enjoy. Yum!

Nautilus Tavern, a La Jolla neighborhood bar and grill, invites guests to kick back and pull up a seat inside or on the back patio. The modern-coastal destination satisfies taste buds and quenches thirsts with a lineup of craft beers, wines and inventive cocktails. Choose from scratch-made favorites like the refreshing Poke Bowl. Served with dice avocado, sautéed edamame, coconut rice, marinated cabbage, carrots and homemade wonton chips creates a light, yet filling meal. Not in the mood for raw fish? Check out Chef Shelly's Mahi Sandwich. This bad boy is rubbed with a honey chili marinade and then topped with lettuce, tomato and mango salsa. Sandwiched between softly grilled multi-grain bread, diners will enjoy a taste of the islands with each bite. Yes please!

Stop in for dinner at Gaslamp's favorite Greystone Steakhouse during National Fishing Week and select any entrée from the Pier Side Picks portion of the menu. Diners will find dishes like a blackened and seared Local Yellowtail. This satisfying plate is served with wok-fried rice, organic carrots, chilis and a zesty mango salsa. A few other favorites found at Greystone include seabass, lobster and a Cajun crusted shrimp and scallop entree. Visit this elegant dining spot and pair fresh catch with a glass (or two!) of vino from their extensive wine list.
